

JAPS TRAPPED RUSSIAN BOAT

Attempt to Reach Port Arthur Squadron Is Foiled by the Wily Jap Admiral.

THE FORCES BATTLE IN OPEN SEA

Tokio Believes That the Enemy's Warships Have Either Been Captured or Sunk by the Admiral Who Sought Public Favor.

(Special by Scripps-McLain.)
Tokio, July 2.—Three Russian cruisers of the Vladivostok squadron were seen last night in the Ton Shima channel. It is believed the torpedo boats which were accompanied by them when the attack was made on Gen San, have returned to port. Heavy firing was heard in the vicinity of the cruisers, giving rise to a report that the cruisers had been trapped by Admiral Kamimura, but later the Russian vessels were seen proceeding safely toward the northeast.

Battle Fought
Chefoo, July 2.—Junks arrive here are repeating the information brought by a steamer to Chefoo yesterday to the effect a battle was in progress yesterday between Port Arthur and the Russian vessels. Later arrivals state the Russian vessels were headed toward Port Arthur when last seen and the inference is the czar's vessels were worsted in a fight and retreated to the harbor.

Close Shops
Chefoo, July 2.—A report from Port Arthur states the Russian authorities have closed all shops and in the town and have sealed the doors. It is further reported the last of the non-combatants, including every able-bodied man, have been sent out to the trenches. Evidently a full assault from the land side of the city is thought imminent.

Land Battle
St. Petersburg, July 2.—Kuropatkin reports Kuroki's forces are generally falling back. Have evacuated Khanzo and other villages. General Oku's forces are retreating southward from the points between Jin Ssang and Sin Tin Ting.

More Reports
Nagasaki, July 2.—The Russian Vladivostok squadron is reported off Iku Island last night and the sound of firing was heard at Gotesland.

Believe Night Battle
Tokio, July 2.—The navy department expresses a belief that Admiral Kamimura sent his torpedo boats against the Russian Vladivostok squadron during the night. It is thought Kamimura will precede the Russians into the Ton Shima straits of Korea and that the Russians ran east, then north in an effort to escape.

Tokio, July 2.—A daring attempt by the Vladivostok squadron to effect a junction with the Port Arthur fleet has been frustrated by Vice Admiral Kamimura. The Russian cruisers Kurik, Gromobol and Bogatyr were trapped and forced into battle by Kamimura early Saturday morning off the Tushima Islands, to the Southern entrance to the Sea of Japan.

The result of the battle has not yet been learned, but Kamimura's squadron is much stronger than that of the Russians, and it is believed all three ships have been sunk or captured.

Waits for the Enemy.
The Vladivostok squadron is waiting for the enemy.

LAST OF THE SILVER DOLLAR
Government Will Not Make Any More Coins of That Denomination.

Portland, Oregon, July 2.—There will never be another silver dollar coined in this country, said George E. Roberts, director of the United States mint, in an interview here. Mr. Roberts is on the way to Alaska and made this statement in answer to a question by a reporter. "No, there will be no more new silver dollars unless by chance a 16 to 1 congress should be elected," he added, "for the supply of silver bullion purchased under the Sherman act is exhausted."

MISS ROOSEVELT WILL HAVE A ROYAL GOOD TIME NOW
As Guest of Honor of the William Boardman at Wynde Cliffe.

(Special by Scripps-McLain.)
Manchester, Mass., July 2.—Miss day was at Genash, nearly 400 miles north of the Tushima Islands, and there bombarded the town and sunk two merchantmen. It was reported to have returned to Vladivostok, but that report, which came from Russian sources, was evidently intended as a blind.

Kamimura evidently expected the squadron would attempt to dash through the Korean strait and join the Port Arthur fleet, and he waited among the islands for its appearance.

Fight to the Finish.
That the fight was a desperate one is assured by the fact that Kamimura has been severely criticized recently for allowing the Russian ships to escape him a few weeks ago, when they made a sortie into the Straits of Korea, sinking two Japanese transports, and returned in safety to Vladivostok. Kamimura, while not censured by the government, was by the people, and in many quarters a demand was made that he kill himself. Consequently, with a chance to retrieve himself, he will fight, the government thinks, until absolute victory or absolute defeat is assured.

Battle in Open Sea.
Chefoo, July 2.—A naval engagement between all the available warships of Russia and Japan was fought Friday in the open sea midway between here and Port Arthur.

The report of the battle was brought here by the captain of the British steamer Chefoo, which passed within fifteen miles of the Japanese fleet. The distance from land, nearly forty miles, precluded the possibility that the minkado's men were again bombarding Port Arthur.

As the Chefoo passed the Japanese fleet was firing, outside after broadside at the enemy, which, from the Chefoo, was but a speck on the horizon.

As the steamer proceeded on its way a terrific explosion was heard, but whether it was a Russian or a Japanese warship which was affected could not be told.

Kuropatkin is Retreating.
Newchwang, July 2.—A telegram from Mukden says Gen. Kuropatkin has decided not to fight at Ta Teho Kiao or Hai Cheng, but to retreat from Ta Teho Kiao, which movement was started June 28, and is well under way.

Small detachments of troops will, it is added, stay south to stem the Japanese until the Russian retreat is in full swing. It is not believed here that the Russian will be able to reach Liaoyang, as the Japanese control the passes, which would indicate that the Russian line of communication may be cut. A Chinese rumor is to the effect that 2,000 Mongolian troops engaged by Russia have been annihilated in battle. No credence is placed in the report.

Alice Roosevelt arrived here for a week's visit with the William J. Boardman, who have a magnificent estate at Wynde Cliffe on the Essex road, near the Essex County club. Many festivities are arranged for her pleasure.

Lockard found employment in this county, ingratiated himself into the confidence of Mr. Shippee, a wealthy farmer, made love to Shippee's daughter and married her. The barn of John Humphreys was entered and a horse and buggy stolen. Simultaneous with the team's disappearance the convict's young wife is missing. Officers have been unable to find any trace of the outfit or the couple. Prison officials will make a determined effort to capture Lockard, who, if caught, will be committed to prison for the eight remaining years of his original sentence.

A crowd of Hearst boomers arrived this morning from California, Nevada and Arizona. The arrival gave quite a Hearst tone to the situation. All seemed to favor Parker in case Hearst is not available.

Illinois Executive Puts an End to Contract Labor in the Convict Prisons.

QUESTION OF EXERCISE IS ASKED

Over 1000 Inmates of the Joliet Penitentiary May Be Forced To Remain in Their Cells Until the State Makes Arrangements.

(Special by Scripps-McLain.)

Joliet, Ill., July 2.—The 1,400 male and thirty-eight female inmates of Joliet penitentiary have been locked in their cells and all existing contracts for their labor will be terminated. This action is ordered by Gov. Yates, who sent the following telegram to Warden Murphy.

"The attorney general has just informed me verbally that in his opinion the penitentiary officials have no authority to carry out existing contracts, and the same should be discontinued, notwithstanding the injunction preventing the board of prison industries from incurring expenditures under the new law. You are accordingly directed to discontinue all arrangements and labor under the contract system heretofore pursued."

One Thousand Are Idle.
One thousand convict laborers directly affected by the governor's order are apportioned among contractors as follows: Selz, Schwab & Co., Chicago, shoe manufacturers, 300; Illinois Rattan and Reed company, Chicago, 300; Joliet Chair company, 200; J. G. Mott & Co., Chicago cooperage, 100; Illinois Broom company, 100.

Thirty-eight female inmates have been working under chair contract—placing cane bottoms in chairs. Thirty employees of contractors, foremen, clerks, etc., are thrown out of work.

E. R. Brainerd, Chicago, president of the Illinois Rattan and Reed company, renewed his contract two years ago. It runs four years, with privilege of renewal.

The price paid for the convicts' work averages about 50 cents a day a man. The income to the prison from contract labor was $140,000 annually.

SONS SECURE INTEREST IN DEAD FATHER'S ESTATE

Break Will That Disinherited Them and Will Now Share in Property That Is Worth $75,000.

Kokomo, Ind., July 2.—The will of Thomas B. Jones has been set aside and property interests valued at $75,000 will now be settled under the testamentary law of Indiana. Mr. Jones in the closing years of his life had spent $50,000 in litigation. He had difficulty with one of his sons, accusing him of the theft of a hog, and was sued by the son for slander and judgment was recovered. When making his will Mr. Jones disinherited the seven sons of his first marriage and had the three sons of his second marriage and his twenty-seven grandchildren sharing equally in fee. The will was attacked on the ground that Mr. Jones was of unsound mind when he made it.

Mr. Jones owned 400 acres of land in Tipton county and 200 in Howard county, Indiana, and residences, notes and bonds. He was an expert trader and made his fortune while a young man.

MINNESOTA INDORSES PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

St. Paul, Minn., July 2.—The expected bolt in the state Republican convention did not materialize, the factions getting together after a preliminary contest on the report of the credentials committee and nominating the foregoing ticket with practical unanimity. The followers of Judge Loren W. Collins, having control of the state central committee, secured a majority report on contests seating their men, but the Dunn delegates were in the majority in the convention and forced the adoption of a minority report seating the Dunn men from Hennepin and the other counties in dispute. Senator Moses Clapp acted as chairman and was endorsed for reelection. The platform commends the administration of President Roosevelt and Governor Van Sant, the latter's fight on the railroad merger being especially praised.

SMALL BOY'S CRY OF FIRE STARTS THEATER PANIC

Actor Ray Brown Succeeds in Quieting the Audience by Rendering the Much Abused "Bedelia."

Waukesha, Wis., July 2.—An audience of about 700 people in the Casino theater was thrown into a panic by a small boy's shout of "Fire!" in the gallery when the city fire bell sounded an alarm from another part of the city. In the rush for the exits which followed several women fainted away, but no one was hurt. The curtain had just been rung down on the third act of "Alone in Greater New York" after the villain had set fire to the heroine's house and the hero had nobly rescued her by carrying her down from the flames in the third scene when the fire bell sounded an alarm. A shrill-voiced boy in the gallery shouted "Fire!" and started on a run down the stairs, with several companions behind him. The audience followed and in a moment the confused crowd was climbing over the seats to reach the exits. Ray Brown, the hero of the play, showed his resourcefulness by marching to the front of the stage and dramatically shouting "Bedelia."

JOSEPH DUTTON WRITES LETTER TO OLD FRIEND

Former Janesville Man Now in Charge of the Leper Colony Near Hawaii, Writes to Mr. Sutherland.

The following letter and two accompanying cuts are part of a letter written by Brother Joseph Dutton, formerly a resident of Janesville, and a former member of the Thirtieth Wisconsin regiment. Mr. Dutton came to Janesville when he was twelve years old. With his parents he resided in a house which stood where the Grand hotel now is located. Mr. Dutton entered the employ of James Sutherland when quite a youth and was a clerk in the bookstore here when the civil war broke out. He enlisted in the Thirtieth regiment and became one of the noncommissioned staff of that regiment. After the war he entered the government service as a civilian employee and later became a trappist layman. He went to his present home at Kalawao nearly twenty years ago. The first picture shows him about this time and the other with the group of lepers about him was taken recently.

Leper Settlement,
Kalawao, Molokai,
Terry, of Hawaii,
June 6, 1904.

My Dear Mr. Sutherland: In referring to you in several letters recently have called you my "Senior old friend," and so you are. Other acquaintances may date back as far but none have been so intimate.

I wish to thank you very much for your good and highly interesting letter. Every bit of it had for me a pathetic significance, particularly all you say about "yourselves," about your family, the "boys"—now trappists, active men—busy with the old store, the dear old bookstore. It has a niche in my memory that is very special and highly treasured. It stands rather by itself amongst other niches and odd corners that have grown or been built in the course of a life that has been somewhat diversified. Some of the niches have been badly smashed. Some are more or less crumbled, some are badly stained and need a new coat of something to be presentable in the every day or human sense, but really I do not seek to make them in that sense presentable, rather by trusting to an attempt at repair and to the mercy of God. But the bookstore niche I trust is in fair order, and the war time record, that is "fair," considering human weakness.

Your age, what a wonder you can still apply yourself to correspondence and more or less to business also. You are older than Judge (Col.) Lyon. He is 81, and his wife 77. I get very lovely letters from them. They now live in California, in the beautiful Santa Clara valley at Edin Vale, with their children. They go east, however, for this summer, leaving home during this month for New York. Will be also for quite a while in Wisconsin, probably in August. In my answer to his recent letter I jokingly stated that he must go back to Wisconsin to keep things straight. He had no more gotten away when the capital, so long his official home, was burned out; also one of his charges, while president of the board of control, the asylum at Racine, his old home. By the way, the last time I saw you was at Madison, and I then saw the capital building for the first time. It was quite the whole of the destruction done there, but my special interest was in the historical society rooms. However, I did not see any special mention of them in connection with the newspaper account of the fire, so I am hoping that the society had been moved into a separate place. It would be a pity to lose their collection. It was one of the most active of all the state societies, I think. Lyman C. Draper, the old time secretary, gave it a good start. I was a corresponding member when about ten years of age, perhaps you recall it. Sent them an Indian prayer book and some other things just about 50 years ago.

Your account of special improvements in Janesville is very edifying. Yes; you did send me a copy of "Janesville Schools," having pictures of various school buildings. It had the "Old Academy"—the place where I first went to school. In fact, I believe, it was about the first school building in town. I say where I "went" to school. That is hardly correct, at least as to the first day. Can remember how my father and Mr. Woodruff, the teacher, dragged me in, while I set my heels against everything that stuck out enough to get a hold on. I don't know what it was that made me so unamiable in opposition to that school; cannot remember, but evidently I looked upon whatever it was as being very serious indeed. However, I "went" finally, "as all good boys do." That book—by the way—I sent to a friend at San Jose, Cal., near Judge Lyon's new home. I forgot to mention in speaking of him that there was not long ago a reunion of "Happy Badgers" at San Jose. Col. Lyon was president. Nearly 200 "Happy Badgers" gathered there. I was astonished to know that so many could have gathered in that region. Also we have over here—in our ocean—the battleship Wisconsin. It was at Honolulu not long ago. In writing Mr. W. O. Smith I asked him to take off his hat to it for me—which he did. Mr. W. O. Smith—by the way—is my special friend in Honolulu. He was for many years attorney general, president of the Honolulu bar association and president of the board of health in which latter capacity I became well acquainted with him. He was known as the strong man in several former governments. While now retired, in order to better attend to his extensive matters, he still has to go occasionally to Washington when Hawaii has something very urgent on hand there. Has recently returned from there, having been away from the islands several months.

Spending of improvements in Janesville, Mr. Ogden H. Fethers was in Honolulu some time ago. Upon leaving for home he sent me a very nice letter, nice in friendly sentiment and including a general view of Janesville. A view in words very effective and interesting. Have never met Mr. Fethers but knew of him. Somehow I had an idea, whether correct or not, that he was associated with Hon. Philly Norcross. The latter has written me. The letter is nearly same date as yours. It has also many interesting items. Must try to have an answer for him by same mail with this. I first knew him at Milton, then in war period. Though in looking his letter over, where he speaks very pleasantly of you, he mentions that it seems to him we first met in the old bookstore, but adds that it may have been at Milton. He mentions a number of the oldtime people who are deceased, and you as one remaining and yet more or less active.

TWO PHOTOS OF DUTTON

Two photographs enclosed will doubtless interest you. The one taken here was made by the medical department, shows a small part of my large family.

In January last had a letter from F. A. Van Kirk, Portland, Oregon. First heard of him from an old Memphis, Tenn., friend, who now lives with his family in Portland. He (Van Kirk) speaks of being with you in past years, of the fine business the old bookstore has, etc.

Your letter and the first Japan-Kushu war news came together, while a great storm was raging here. It had several weeks, and nearly severed our connection with the world.

A number of the older friends address me just as you do: "Father Joseph," thinking I am a priest, but I am not. Am merely a layman, Joseph Dutton. Am mostly known as Brother Joseph Dutton, but am not in this strict sense a brother even though I have four brothers under my charge. Am not under any vows at all, myself. Father Damien always called me Brother. It started from that. Also in being afflicted with several religious orders as known as Brother Joseph Francis. Was given the name Joseph when received into the Catholic church, on April 27, 1883, at Memphis, my 40th birthday, but of course continued the first B. so long as in the U. S. service, and until all business matters were settled. Then, upon coming here, I began to use my Christian name of Joseph.

As to writing anything, at once prepared for publication, I don't now feel able, but if your secretary wishes to so use any part of this letter or any letter, aided and corrected by your memory, I shall not object, and if you put your name to it so much the better. The fact of the matter is I am some fifteen years behind in reminiscences. Ever since Father Damien died—April 15, 1889, I have aimed to write something of my three years with him. Have been urged to do so by many people, but it seems the time has not come. At least, it has not come to me, though I have a considerable data that might be used when it does come. It seems a sort of duty. I was immediately with Father much longer than anyone else. Also his executor, and settled his temporal matters.

Another point has come up in the past few years. A number of people have asked for notes in general about the settlement and about self before coming here and of the eleven years here. (Is next month.) In the meantime I had given nearly everything at hand, some years ago, to the friend at San Jose, an invalid lady from Tennessee. She wanted the matter for her diversion. Capt. E. E.

Woodman—you remember him, in educational work before the war, in Rock county; captain of our old Zouave Co., then of B. Co., 13th Reg.; now secretary of the Chieft. St. P. M. & Omaha R.R. Co. at St. Paul, is one who has suggested he would like to have these notes, and there is no one whose having them I should more willingly agree to. A boyhood and army friend and companion, a man of high integrity, shall try to make up some data for him as I get time. Except to keep up my little business matters all writing is far behind with me. Letters are often nearly or quite a year old when answered.

Just to serve for the moment in closing this rather rambling letter or whatever you may call it, shall add a few notes that may have gotten into the above. But first, I forgot to mention that one who asks for data is in London, and about Notre Dame university in Indiana, near South Bend or rather, South Bend is near the university, for the latter is the oldest, I believe. It is carried on by the Fathers and Brothers of the Holy Cross Cong., the headquarters of the order being there. One other only in the states I think, having headquarters in the states. The Fanillists of New York city. Father Damien, at Notre Dame, is a friend of mine. They have there many cabinets, etc., containing interesting collections mainly relating to the church. After death of Father Damien I sent a number of things he had used for their museum, as I may call it. The bulk of Father Damien's effects we sent to Lourain. Other things sent later to Notre Dame—some personal things—are, I believe, with the Father Damien articles. My box of retain copies of my accounts is there. Judge Lyon had it until lately. Data sent to Capt. Woodman may go there eventually. Now for a few bits of data: Came here in July, 1886. Helped Father Damien in such ways as a layman can, to his death, April 15, 1889. Soon after arrival began care of sick, doing sore dressing, etc., continuing to date, only at present merely look after it, having in past few weeks turned the sore dressing over to the brothers who assist in carrying on the home. There are four brothers—two German, one Belgian, one Hollander—two of them, with my two native helpers, attend to most of the details of caring for sick, the sores, etc. The latter is done here at my place. In a bunch, connected by verandas and passages, there are office, drugroom, bath house, sore dressing place, shoe repair shop, all here where I am writing. (At night old times now long past date of this. Capt. Norcross will have brief letter. I fear, if it goes in this week's mail.)

This is a home, usually 120 to 150 inmates, orphan boys, blind, helpless men, etc. It is of this only that I have sole charge. One of same character, at Kalapapa, two miles distant, for girls and women, is conducted by four Franciscan Sisters, from Syracuse, N. Y., one of the four, Mother Marianne, in charge. They have usually about 100 to 120 inmates. That home—Bishop home—is at one extremity of the settlement, and this, Father Damien's, is at the other. Lepers in family groups are scattered between and around the two homes. These homes are named from their founders. C. R. Bishop was a banker in Honolulu. His wife was an Hawaiian princess. After she died he removed to San Francisco. The bank here is still Bishop & Co. Mr. Baldwin is an extensive sugar planter on the island of Maui—our neighbor. He is one of my best friends—along with Mr. Smith. They are associated in various ways and the families are related by marriage. The Smith daughter married the Baldwin son—one of the Baldwin sons rather. In a recent letter Mr. Baldwin mentions another son (whom I have met here) as married in New York, in Europe now coming around home this summer. The other ones of these families came from New England. Mr. Baldwin is a senator. He frequently reminds me to call upon him for any special need here. And I do occasionally, not often. It would not answer to injure such resource by too frequent

These of course were all residents of the islands here when found to be lepers. Those of other countries had mostly been on the islands along time.

The cluster of little cabins around Father Damien's house did not answer the purpose for very long. In 1887 we began to spread out and built two houses of considerable size. This enlargement was sufficient as to capacity up to about 1890, in fact we had to make it do until May, 1891. But it was some time a patchwork and not suitable for complete operation, therefore, about 1890 we began to discuss a new and better home. The board of health had adopted it as a home about early part of 1889, (I have the records, but in this speak from memory.)

Now, before we could begin our new home, the sisters must be provided for. This experiment of Father Damien and self helped sometimes by others had proven a success, so it was thought there should be a similar one for the women and girls at Kalapapa. The Franciscan sisters had been for several years at the Honolulu branch hospital, and were to be called to the leper to settlement to operate the home for orphan girls, blind and helpless women, and for any who had not family relations. That, too, has proven a success. (For a time also attended our home in part.)

In 1890-1-2, along there, starts were made for one new home, but for one reason and another little progress was made. I had been quiet at my work—not wishing any change, but Mr. W. O. Smith, then president of the board of health, took a notion in 1893 to get me to take hold of the home, construction, as Mr. Baldwin would supply the means. Probably you do not know, in fact there are but few of the old regiment who know that I had a considerable army, construction work to carry on during the war, particularly at Decatur, Ala., the regiment then being in Texas. I was detached on staff duty. But for the new home. Yes; would carry it out if left entirely in my hands and it was. Neither the board of health nor any official asked anything about the plans. I called for everything that was needed. No one asked any questions nor made any suggestion. The home was occupied in May, 1894. Soon thereafter the board of health came up. Everyone was astonished to see the old rock pile turned into what it was and is yet. The board of health reports that followed, and the newspapers, gave so much praise that I was almost ashamed of myself having come here to be a servant. Many pictures have been made of the home. Must try to have one for you. Bishop home is very nice, and, under the sisters, of course, the housekeeping and all interior work could not possibly be done better, but the site does not compare with this. The houses are bunched up closely and the surrounding homes are too near. For beauty of site, and of the general outlines, there is not any place in the settlement to compare with ours here. At least everyone says so. I never leave the yard—have not for over 11 years now. We have 55 buildings, big and little, in the home.

Mr. R. L. Stevenson called our place, the whole leper settlement, a bracket on the wall. That gives the best idea I have seen. Two miles along the wall, projecting into the sea half of a mile in the middle part, like half of a dish or a bracket, a great depth of water, so that a surface, and extending above the surface about 2,000 feet, 2,200 in highest part, all irregular cliff, but everywhere very steep. This cliff is called the wall, a general name for all cliffs. The steamer landing is at Kalapapa. And since the water pipes have been carried over there the administration buildings have been moved there, and it has become the largest part of the settlement. In Father Damien's time, and for some years later this place, Kalawao, was the leper settlement proper, the leper landing merely a warehouse at Kalapapa landing. Now our home has just about one half of the Kalawao population. It is a good location for the home, better than before.

Am thinking tonight that this writing has stretched over enough ground (it's night of 8th now) and also the idea has come to suggest that when you are quite done with it, with the writing, it would be very nice indeed for you to send it to Capt. Woodman. That is if you like the idea. It has become much longer than I had any idea of at first, and for Capt. Woodman to have it would save my writing just the same again, should make a brief memorandum of this so as to let the other notes whenever I can write them fit onto this. Only he must "skip over" that part I wrote about him.

Owners of Real Estate on River Bottom Object to a Tax—Board of Review Turns to Dismiss.

Before the Beloit board of review re-assembles it is expected that the opinion of District Attorney Jackson on the matter of assessing the "river lots" will have to be submitted. Litigation is threatened by the owners of the "submerged" and if the decision of the district attorney accords with the instructions sent out by the state tax commissioners it is probable that the valuation fixed for the "bottomland" will be subtracted from the assessment of the buildings so that the threatened legal action may be avoided. The session of the board was a short one but the protests and complaints crowded into the brief time were such as to make the members desirous of a rest. The work will be continued Tuesday morning.

About the various steps concerning growth of the home. Father Damien began the first not organized as a home, but led on to the home. It was when I came here, just a cluster of cabins and little shanties about this home. The first step, I joined him in that, with the rest. In 1886 Father Damien had some 20 to 30 of the lepers living near his home. In 1887 we had 45 to 60, 1888 to 1894, 80 to 105; 1895 to 1900, 140 to 150. Since 1900, as the total number of lepers decrease, our numbers run from 120 to 130. That is, the total number was decreasing for several years, but now there seems to be an increase again, whether from an actual increase in the disease or from greater zeal on the part of officials over the islands in gathering them up, I am as yet unable to say. They are gathered from the five principal islands of the Hawaiian group. Since 1885, the total number here at close of each year is as follows:

1886	690 lepers	1895	1087 lepers
1887	695 lepers	1896	1115 lepers
1888	1035 lepers	1897	1100 lepers
1889	1187 lepers	1898	1101 lepers
1890	1212 lepers	1899	1017 lepers
1891	1112 lepers	1900	1025 lepers
1892	1005 lepers	1901	945 lepers
1893	1155 lepers	1902	915 lepers
1894	1124 lepers	June '03	883 lepers

Since then a slight increase, I have a good many statistics, but they can hardly be of interest, save perhaps this, the nationalities, taken June 30, 1903:

	Male	Female
Hawaiian	459	338
American	7	1
British	3	3
German	3	2
Port. Canadian	1	1
Danish	1	1
Norwegian	1	1
Swedish	1	1
Portuguese	12	2
Japanese	5	5
Porto Rican	3	3
Chinese	40	5
Philippine	1	1
Tahitian	1	1
South Sea Isl.	3	3
	541	317

OLD FOGY HAS A USUAL COMPLAINT

IS NEVER SATISFIED WITH ANY THING NOWADAYS.

CONTINUES HIS GRUMBLING

Picks Flaws in Many of the Affairs
That Look All Right on the Surface.

To the Editor: Another week has gone by and has brought but little in my hopper to grind out for the benefit of the public seeking sensation and fault-finding. Do you know I think we live too much on this fault finding and sensation? The bible says: "Blush the beam from your own eye before you after the mote in your neighbor's." Another old saying too true but, alas, too seldom followed: "People who live in glass houses should not throw stones." Is forgotten in this everyday life. I have endeavored in the past to point out a few slips which have happened about the city which might otherwise have escaped the eyes of the public. As taxpayers they in right and justice should know all that goes on. However, many little things go on in both council chamber and police circles which never see the light of day. Why, it was only a short time ago when a prominent citizen was arrested for selling liquor to a minor and paid a fine and no record was made of it in the columns of the paper or was the prisoner publicly brought into court. This is just an example.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. No person or corporation, after the passage of this ordinance, shall suffer or permit to be erected or constructed upon West Milwaukee street, between Academy street and the center line of Rock river, upon North River street, between West Milwaukee street and West Bluff street, upon South River street, between West Milwaukee street and Pleasant street, upon East Milwaukee street, between Division street and the center line of Rock river, upon North Main Street, between East Milwaukee street and Fourth avenue and upon South Main street, between East Milwaukee street and South First street, in the city of Janesville, any line or lines of wires, cables, poles or other appliances for the purpose of transmitting telegraph, telephone, signal, electric light, heat, power or other force, except trolley and span wires, loops to lamps suspended over the center of the streets, service wires leading from wires or cables now erected, and poles necessary for the support of the same, unless such wires and cables are placed in under ground conduits, approved by the common council.

Section 2. All line or lines of wires, cables, poles and other appliances, erected and constructed within the district and upon the streets mentioned in section one of this ordinance (except trolley and span wires, loops to lamps suspended over the center of the streets, and poles necessary for the support of the same) shall be removed, and said line or lines of wires and cables, except trolley and span wires and loops to lamps suspended over the center of the streets, placed in underground conduits, approved by the common council, on or before the first day of August, 1903.

Section 3. The chief engineer shall remove all such wires, cables, poles and other appliances not removed at the time mentioned in the preceding section without further action of the common council. TWENTY GUNS HAD GLORIOUS SHOOT

Best Meeting of the Year Held Yesterday—The Janesville Gun Club.

Twenty "guns" including local shooters and sportsmen from Beloit, Milton, Fort Atkinson and Chicago enjoyed one of the best afternoons of sport at the semi-weekly Gun club shoot yesterday afternoon that has been seen here in many a day.

McVicar broke fifty seven clay birds out of seventy he shot at, and thus has the high score for the day. Among the gentlemen from out of the city who participated in the meet were: Mr. Ward of Fort Atkinson, C. W. Thompson and City Attorney Rood of Beloit, Mr. Dodd of Milton, and J. Reed of Chicago. Janesville is fast becoming recognized as a rising city in gun club circles and while the Janesville Gun club is not by any means a new institution it has forged to the front this last spring in an amazing manner. The scores for yesterday's shoot are as follows:

Roessling, 60 birds, 47 hits; A. Klenow, 50 birds, 35 hits; J. Reed, 60 birds, 37 hits; J. Reed, 25 birds, 22 hits; C. W. Simpson DRY GOODS

Painless, Natural Childbirth.

Baby's coming into the world should be preceded by a certain preparation on the part of every woman who expects to become a mother. She owes it as a duty to her unborn babe, and to herself, her duty to her unborn babe is to use every means within her power to aid his entrance into the world. Baby cannot help himself in this ordeal, therefore mother must. He has a hard enough time after his arrival, so let us make his coming easy. His health in after life depends greatly upon the manner of his coming; would you have your child a cripple, or would you have him a tower of strength? Strong men are but grown-up children; a famous surgeon in Vienna is devoting his life-work to the cure of little helpless cripples, deformed by birth; do not allow your child to become a cripple.

Mother's Friend

Is a liniment which will forestall any possibility of accident at birth; that is, it relaxes all the abdominal muscles and tissues, and permits of an easy access to the child. It eases the mother's pain, and so assists nature that when baby comes he starts out in life with a constitution well able to fight life's battles, and to bloom into strong pure manhood. It is the comfort and delight of every true mother's heart.

VERDICT OF THE PARTY.
 The republican national convention in session June 22, 1904, adopted by unanimous vote, the following sentiment, contained in the report of the committee on credentials, and offered by said committee after a thorough investigation of the Wisconsin contest:
 "Your committee report it to be their final judgment and unanimous decision that the convention which elected John C. Spooner, Joseph V. Quarles, Joseph W. Babcock and Emil Buensch, as delegates-at-large, together with their alternates, was the regular convention of the republican party in Wisconsin."
 This is the highest authority in the party, and the decision ought to satisfy every loyal republican in the state.

OUR SATURDAY NIGHT.

Passing down State street, in Chicago, the other day, were half a dozen open carriages loaded with flowers. The sight was so unusual that it attracted attention, and people stopped to admire the choice floral designs, and to ask in whose memory the loving tribute was offered.

A funeral car and a long line of vehicles followed, and some one said: "This is the funeral procession of Charles Netcher, and these carriages are filled with employees, who for years associated with him."

Who was Charles Netcher, and what had he done to endear his memory to so large a circle of friends? Charles Netcher was the proprietor and owner of the Boston Store. Forty years ago his mother, a German woman, took him into the Partridge dry goods store in Buffalo, and asked Mr. Partridge to employ him.

The boy was so timid and diffident that he clung to his mother's dress, and attempted to keep out of sight. The firm did not need a boy, but there was something in the lad's face that spoke of honesty and determination, and when asked what he could do, he replied, "Anything," and so he took off his coat and went to work as bundle boy at $1.50 per week.

Seventy-five boys were employed in the store and the manager was instructed to keep track of them, and reward merit with promotion as occasion warranted. Tanny Netcher soon attracted attention, because he was a tireless worker and the days were never long enough to satisfy ambition.

He never talked, but his eyes and ears were always open. The clock and whistle never interested him, and he soon became known as the boy who knew nothing about the passage of time. He performed faithfully the tasks assigned him, and then, from pure love of work, found other things to do, so that he was never idle.

Such a boy could not long be kept at the bundle counter, and he soon found himself in the stock room, and a few years later, when the firm removed to Chicago, Charles Netcher was among the trusted employees, working for a moderate salary, but with the same bulldog determination to win. What he lacked in brilliancy he made up in work, and in his ambition to save money. On a salary of $25 a week he was able to accumulate, and in a few years he owned a comfortable block of stock. When the firm incorporated he was given the management, and at his suggestion the business was named the "Boston Store." Long after this he continued to live on $25 a week, and five years ago became sole owner of the business. His estate is estimated at $2,000,000.

The life of Charles Netcher should be an inspiration to every American boy. He belonged to the class of men known as plodders. He was not a speculator and never possessed an ambition to get rich quick. He had an eye for detail, and there was no department of the great business, which he finally controlled, that he was not familiar with.

He was the first at the store in the morning and the last to leave it at night, and for years, after putting in eighteen hours of active work, would make up or bed on a counter and sleep until six in the morning.

A friend found him at his desk at one o'clock one morning, and said to him: "Charley, you ought to take a rest, you are killing yourself with work."

"Test? Why, work never killed anyone," replied Mr. Netcher. "Bad habits are what take men away. It is work that makes life worth living."

This was the secret of the man's success, and it is so easy to initiate that every young man may adopt it and work out a destiny. Mr. Netcher acquired knowledge slowly. His mind did not grasp things intuitively during the earlier years of his life, but it grasped them with persistence and he never let go until master of the situation.

In looking out for the best interests of his employers, he had an eye to himself, for he planned some day, as all young men should plan, to have a business of his own.

He was a resourceful man, and as the business expanded, his mind expanded with it, and every detail of the great business was as familiar to him as a household word. Long an employe himself, he was considerate of the people in his employ. He never asked a man to do what he could not do himself and he was a firm believer in the dignity of toil.

Some one said recently that many honest young men fail, not because of lack of opportunity, but because they are not equal to the demands of large responsibility. This, of course, does not apply to the army of young men who are content to work a given number of hours a day for moderate wages, and who would not recognize an opportunity if it as labeled; young men who work by the clock in both shop and store, and swear by the union.

The world has room for this class of workmen when times are good, but it has many vacant places all the time for the smaller class who are ambitious to get to the front and who are willing to make any sacrifice to accomplish their purpose.

This is the class to which any young man in any calling may belong if he will and it is also the class where failure is recorded through lack of ability to master detail and grasp and control large responsibilities.

Opportunity is never lacking with this class of men, and promotion follows faster than ability to meet it successfully.

This is not only an age of great enterprises, but it is distinctively a young man's age. There was never a time when young men of ability were in greater demand than today, and the supply does not begin to equal the demand.

To this class of young men the character of such a man as Mr. Netcher is worth a careful study. He succeeded after many years of patient work and preparation, where many other young men equally ambitious, failed.

The secret of his success was largely due to the fact that he was never satisfied to perform simply the task assigned him. He was always looking for something to do.

Such men not only attract attention, but they become resourceful, and when responsibility crowds upon them they are ready to meet it.

A young man may be a first-class accountant and a good office man, but he is just as good today as he will be twenty years later, and receiving as large a salary as he will ever be able to earn.

If he aspires to be a merchant or a business man he might better don a pair of overalls and work for half the money in the shipping department or stock room.

A man may be a good salesman on the road, but if he sticks to it long enough he never will be anything else, for he is working from the wrong side of the counter to make a successful business man.

It is worth something to any young man to be a close student in the school of observation. The study of men and things is not a part of the college curriculum. That belongs to the larger university of every-day life.

The young man who observes, will discover that there are channels of opportunity where there is no limit to responsibility, and where men are picked up and forced to the front in spite of themselves. If they are able to stand the strain they are winners, but if resources are limited the race is soon run.

Much is said nowadays about capital and many young men are troubled with the notion that if they had $10, 000 the great battle of life would be won, and the making of a fortune would be easy.

This is a mistaken notion. The man who can't take care of $20 a week of hard-earned money, would be unsafe to trust with a larger amount.

Capital was never so plenty as it is today, and never more easy to obtain. There is millions of it idle, waiting for men like Charles Netcher to handle it. Any young man who is honest and thrifty can put himself in position to secure all the capital he needs for any business, as soon as he can acquire the ability to handle it successfully.

He honest, but he more than that if you expect to win the prices of life. It takes longer to investigate a man's ability than it does his honesty, and it is frequently more disappointing.

Honesty comes naturally to most men, but ability is the results of hard persistent work. It is the keystone of success.

PRESS COMMENT

Chicago News: No one has heard of the girls meeting and passing resolutions of sympathy for themselves because Gladstone Dowle has never been killed.

Milwaukee Sentinel: Dowle says he is for Roosevelt. Elijah is evidently able to distinguish a band wagon from a hearse.

Menasha Record: There will be no strike of the governor's machine totem but the people will declare a lockout just the same.

Racine Times: Meanwhile the crops are doing nicely and are beyond danger of being withered by the hot air of the politicians.

Racine Journal: A betting book made up as to the eventual proper punishment of those responsible for the General Slocum horror as fixed by the coroner's jury, would probably be a fifty to one as against.

Neenah Times: The testimony given in the Bonck will ease by Mrs. Ida W. Goin, of Evanston, Ill., a cousin of Miss Mary A. Wadleigh, it true, would lead one to believe that if the late Colonel Bonck was not married to the Wadleigh woman he should have been.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: When Mr. Cleveland was told that Mr. Bryan intended to swing a surprise at St. Louis his hand trembled for a moment and a flush of expectancy rose upon his countenance. Then he proceeded calmly with his bait cutting.

London Punch: Paragraphs have been appearing in several papers on the subject of the strange uses to which old tram cars are put, but no mention is made of the strangest use of all to which they are put in some parts of London, namely, that of tram cars.

Evansville Review: All the good-looking towns round about this hub of Rock county will celebrate the Fourth. The exertion for us to celebrate is too much, and then this celebrating is a relic of by-gone years. Evansville is not on the enthrone very extensively anyhow.

Oshkosh Northwestern: It is claimed that in the little city of Pasadena, Cal., there are at least 120 millionaires, and that over forty of them are widows. It would therefore seem that any ambitious young man, possessing tact and a good address, might do pretty well by deciding to locate in Pasadena.

Buffalo Express: An exchange says the Japanese soldier has muscles like whipcord, is a sure shot, has a good eye for landmarks, sleeps only three hours out of the twenty-four, is cleanly and patriotic and costs the nation only 9 cents a day. Sounds as if some big department store had just received a choice lot of Japanese soldiers, and was bound to have a run on them.

Chicago Tribune: This is the true worth of outing in the woods, that one learns the value of modern life. For the forests are not false teachers. While they welcome the wise man, yet they do not wear him from society. The woods reveal more than their own charms. They reveal civilized man to himself. They show him the foundations as well as the superstructure of the society in which he lives. Dimly and vaguely but with impressive truth, the forest has taught him much in social government. He knows better what cities are from his sojourn where there are none.

Chicago Inter Ocean: Dr. G. Stanley Hall, whose most recent contribution to literature was two volumes of essays each on the subject, "Adolescence," tells the National Educational convention that higher education threatens the marriage state, that a large percentage of high school girls wish they were boys, while the boys themselves are being "feminized." Education is, indeed, responsible for much—including Dr. Hall's ponderous volumes and his cries of alarm from the lecture platform. And for all our trouble the race continues to increase.

Fond du Lac Reporter: As a rule The Reporter pays no attention to anonymous communications on any subject. The correspondent who does not sign his name lays himself open to grave suspicion as one who evidently dares not come out into the light. Every letter to a newspaper must be signed to entitle it to consideration. But The Reporter received a communication this week which is out of the ordinary line and demands some attention because of its evident purpose. It purports to be written by a Milwaukee democrat and it tries to give reasons why democrats should vote for La Follette this year. No wonder the writer seeks to hide behind an assumed name. Were his identity known it would be easy to strip the mask of democracy from his face and leave him exposed to the public gaze as a political confidence man. The anonymous letter is one of the old tricks of unscrupulous politicians, and it is always regarded with suspicion by respectable people. The writer of the letter likens Governor La Follette to William J. Bryan, and bids him to be the defender of the rights of the people against the corporations. That portion of the letter which clearly stamps it as a fraud is the one in which the claim is set up that the Bryan democrats and the La Follette republicans will "make Spooner, Quarles and Babcock take to the tall timber."

BLACKS IN THE UNITED STATES

Final Bulletin as to Men of African Blood Under American Flag.

Washington, July 2.—The census bureau has issued the final bulletin on the negro population of the United States. The number of negroes in the United States, including the entire area covered by the twelfth census (continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico), is 9,204,531, perhaps a larger number than is found in any other country outside of Africa.

READY FOR THE BIG CARNIVAL

MONDAY WILL BE RED LETTER DAY IN JANESVILLE.

WHOLE COUNTY TO BE HERE

Two Enormous Parades, Speeches, Baseball Game, Water Carnival, Vaudeville, Big Illumination.

All day long today the ring of hammers and the song of the saw issued from the rear of residences and business places in Janesville and in the scheduled places the casual observer caught an occasional glimpse of strange vehicles in the process of being fitted out with gorgeous trappings for the great parade on Monday.

From the whispered consultations of Col. Nonesuch and his lieutenants it was gleaned that further attractions for the big circus had been secured. These included a mounted band of twelve pieces in Roman stripe saddles. A midway band playing Turkish tunes direct from Constantinople, a demonstrating auto car from the Fifth Ward Automobile Co.'s headquarters, a hoopla troupe, the Hindoo juggler in his marvellous basket trick, "Eiffel Tower," the performing giraffe, "Tornado," the educated burro, and Lillian Plunkitt's troupe of performing felines.

Indication of Big Day

Every indication points to the biggest celebration in the history of Janesville. Committees in charge of the arrangements met last evening and were loud in their praises of the spirit with which citizens are taking hold of the preparations. Fully a hundred turnouts are promised for the great industrial parade in the morning and the afternoon circus parade which will leave the fair grounds at two o'clock sharp promises to be two miles in length. Reports are to the effect that all Rock county will be here Monday.

Salute at Sunrise

Following the time honored national salute at sunrise and the demonstration of Young America will come the industrial parade at 10 a. m. For this the drum corps, the G. A. R., and the W. R. C. will form on South River street, followed by Mayor Hutchinson, president of the day, and the speakers in carriages. Private rigs, the Imperial band, and civic societies will form on Franklin street. The fire department and floats will form on South Jackson street. Manufacturers will take their positions in waiting on South Academy street. Machinery will form on South Marion street. Starting at South River street members on each thoroughfare will join the procession as it moves west.

Course of Parade

The industrial parade starting on South River street will turn onto Dodge, following that avenue to Pleasant street, thence along Pleasant to Marion, Marion to West Milwaukee, east Milwaukee to North Main, north on Main to Fourth avenue, east on Fourth avenue to bluff, south on bluff to Milwaukee, west on Milwaukee to Main street, south on Main to Court street, west on Court to Park, south on Park on south Third, east on South Third to Main, north on Main to the city park where it will disband.

Speaking At The Park

After the parade has disbanded at the city park at eleven o'clock there will be a short program. Rev. Vaughan will offer prayer, Mrs. Day will read the Declaration of Independence and Rev. Denison will deliver the address of the day. There will be a brief rest at noon and then at two o'clock and then at two o'clock the blare of trumpets in the distance will announce the advent from the fair grounds of the great Nonesuch Bros. pageant of unrivaled splendor. After the populace have feasted their eyes on this great extravaganza their attention will be directed to a wedding in the lion's cage at the show ground. A thrilling exhibition of cowboys repelling an attack on the Deadwood coach on South Main street and a drill of the Modern Woodmen opposite the city hall will also take place. At half past three o'clock the ball game between the Clinton Maroons and the Chicago Gunthers will be commenced.

Illumination In The Evening

Throughout the forenoon the two telephone companies have been busy stretching wires along Milwaukee, Main and River streets. Hundreds of Chinese lanterns will be hung from the Grand hotel to the Hotel Myers and along interesting streets for the big illumination in the evening. Afternoon and evening vaudeville performances will attract a portion of the multitude. The Nonesuch bands will parade from the Hotel Myers at 7:30 p. m. and immediately thereafter the concert bands will discourse patriotic airs and other music. At 8 o'clock the general illumination and fireworks will commence. It will be a big day for everyone.

It Takes Time: Persons who are complaining about the present mail delivery should remember that the city routes have been readjusted lately and that it will take time to complete the change, and be patient if their mail is late.

NO PAPER ISSUED ON MONDAY NEXT

Nation's Birthday Will Be Fittingly Observed by The Gazette Printing Company.

Monday next being Fourth of July there will be no issue of the Gazette. A hundred and twenty-nine years ago Monday morning the great bell in the tower of what is now Independence Hall in Philadelphia pealed forth the news to the whole world that we were a free and independent country and before night the glad word had been passed by horsemen to all the neighboring villages and even to New York. The United States of America had become a nation free from English tyranny. Ever since that day each Fourth of July has been duly celebrated by an enthusiastic loyal people. On Monday Janesville puts on her gala clothes and will try to outshine all previous attempts at honoring our country.

Big celebration in Janesville on Monday, July 4. Industrial parade at 10 a. m., Nonesuch Bros. mammoth circus parade at 2 p. m., Chicago Gunthers vs. Clinton Maroons at Athletic park at 3 p. m., Launch regatta on river at 5:30 p. m., Vaudeville on streets all day. General illumination at night.

CLINTON AFTER NEW FACTORIES

Hold One Firm, Which Had Many Offers From Other Cities.

Clinton is experiencing a boom. The Business Men's association of the city has closed a deal by which they will be able to keep the Smith & Holtum Mfg. Co., which had a flattering offer from Rockford. Also the Chicago Chemical works desires to locate there.

"By an arrangement with the association, Professor Hugo Pfabe, chemist and owner of the factory, came out from Chicago this week and met a committee of the association. He also appeared before a meeting of the association held that evening. The professor impressed the committee very favorably. He is obliged to leave Chicago on account of ordinance recently passed by the city council, restricting the manufacture of certain articles. His business is well established, nearly all of its products being inventions of his own and protected by registered trade marks.

If he goes to Clinton he also proposes to establish a school of photography which will take to Clinton two or three hundred persons for four months in a year. A committee will be sent to visit the works in Chicago in the near future and if the trip results satisfactorily arrangements will be made to secure the factory.

Acting Chairman Buckley stated at a meeting of the association this week that the committee found the business of Smith & Holtum company in good condition with possibilities of a large increase. He considered the organization of a stock company practical, and further recommended that a company be formed with a capital stock of $10,000, $1,000 to be paid up. The report was adopted and C. C. Smith acting for the company subscribed $2,100. Of the balance $1,000 was subscribed by persons present.

Mr. Smith was allowed to choose a committee of three to act with the company in making the deal and perfecting the organization. He selected H. A. Muehlenpach, C. W. Collier and J. F. Kemmerer.

...Forty Years Ago...
Janesville Daily Gazette, Saturday, July 2, 1864.—Don't forget that next Monday is the Fourth of July and that there will be no issue of the paper from this office on that day, unless Grant takes Richmond, in which case we shall issue an extra in the evening.

Remember that the ladies hold forth at the Lappin's hall on that day for the benefit of the Soldiers' Aid society and every man who fails to attend and spend his money there, will be dealt with by the ladies according to the status. In such cases male and provided. There is to be no long-winded orations to set people nodding, but a feast of reason consisting of good digestible edibles such as baked pig, flanked with ice cream, and a flow of soul after the manner of the ancients, supposed to be made up mainly of hot coffee, lemonade and other beverages that enliven but do not intoxicate. After which there will be speaking, provided the orators are not too full of utterances. We understand that the mayor has declared the city under martial law for that day only, and has issued orders, though we haven't seen them, prohibiting any cooking.

THE SENTRY BOX

NEW ERA.
Remarkable influx of Wealth South.

Early this spring an Alabama farmer and his wife were met by a northern traveler in the south, embarking on a railroad train for the first time in their lives, headed toward New York City as a starting point for a trip to Jerusalem and the Holy Land. Their inquiries as to what they should do on arrival at the great city, disclosed their lack of familiarity with modern customs, and incidentally brought out the reasons for their journey.

The farmer had made during the past year through the rise in cotton, more money than in all the previous years of his life. This unwanted good fortune perplexed him sorely, but after piling up all his debts, buying all the adjacent land he wanted and fixing himself in comfort at all points, he could think of no better way to spend the remaining surplus than on a trip to Jerusalem.

This farmer is the type of thousands in the south who now have money beyond their fondest hopes. Astounded by their prosperity, they are, at times, childlike in their projects as to what shall be done with their sudden wealth. The social effects produced by this sudden influx of money will be interesting to notice, but will doubtless be even less far-reaching and significant than its political results.

Official reports to the Agricultural Department and the Bureau of Commerce, indicates that $500,000,000 has been brought to the south this year by the cotton crop. A portion of the rise in price was no doubt due to the artificial corner which finally collapsed, but which lasted long enough to give the actual producers an unusually large share of the benefit. This advance may not be sustained next year. Increased production is likely to reduce the market value of the crop now planted, but a return to the low prices of five years ago, seems to the Sentry highly improbable.

The city of New Orleans, relatively obscured for many years past by the lessened importance of her river trade, shows a splendid revival as the result of this augmented wealth in the section where it still remains the metropolis. The whole city seems to reflect, in its activities and growth, the prevailing conditions. More than three million dollars has been invested by two railroads for property on which to construct new terminals worthy of the location and long needed.

It would be hard to find a historic parallel to the transformation wrought among the farmers, manufacturers and commercial classes of the south by these conditions. There are the forced, hothouse, transitory prosperity often seen there and elsewhere. The south has been lagging somewhat behind the rest of the country for some years and has only begun to participate in the general development. This seems now to be of the natural kind which will go quietly and persistently on, building up that section and changing many of its traditions.

Southern manufacturers are becoming a leading factor in the industrial life of the country. Every enterprise in that section is now apparently pushing forward with marvelous energy. Villages are growing into flourishing towns with every improvement and appliance of scientific invention. The southern shipping ports show great increase in the amount of business done and southern railways are taxed to the utmost in handling the traffic of the newly aroused region.

One significant and far-reaching feature of this development of activity is the statement which comes from the south that the only bar to its still more rapid progress is an insufficiency of labor. It is manifest that the southern states need a diversion of the stream of foreign immigration in their direction, and that movement will undoubtedly suggest its own methods of accomplishment. The great source of relief, however, must come from a solution of the negro problem in its industrial aspects. There is the raw material of skilled labor right at hand only needing fair treatment, proper training and harmonious co-operation to be permanently valuable.

Are there not, in this condition of things, the rudiments of a hopeful view that the political "negro problem" will find, in this era of awakened energy and unexampled prosperity, its successful solution?

Elgin Butter Market.
Elgin, Ill., June 27.—Butter advanced 1-4c on the board today and is quoted at 17 3-4c. The output for the district during the week was 903,600 pounds. Collier, of Chicago, purchased fifty tons from Somonauk, fifty from Aurora, fifty from Harvard, and forty from Maple Park at 18c on the curb. Byron offered fifty, but refused to sell at 18c.

NIPI IN THE BUD.
First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Anna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowing out of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpeloid kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpeloid is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

Because it's For One Thing Only and Janesville is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for anything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is evidence to prove it. Mrs. George M. Carey of 1020 Pleasant street, Beloit, says: "I could hardly realize that the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at C. E. Emerson's drug store did me so much good. I used medicines from the doctor which helped me for a time but soon I became as bad as ever if not worse. I suffered from disordered kidneys for four years and the pain in my back was terrible. I could not sleep but at times had to sit up almost the entire night. When rising from a chair I was often compelled to place my hands on the sides of it and raise myself up to keep the strain off my back. I also suffered from the disturbing of my rest at night. After using Doan's Kidney Pills a short time these symptoms left me and since then I have felt well."

Elgin Butter Market.
Elgin, Ill., June 27.—Butter advanced 1-4c on the board today and is quoted at 17 3-4c. The output for the district during the week was 903,600 pounds. Collier, of Chicago, purchased fifty tons from Somonauk, fifty from Aurora, fifty from Harvard, and forty from Maple Park at 18c on the curb. Byron offered fifty, but refused to sell at 18c.

NIPI IN THE BUD.
First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Anna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowing out of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpeloid kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpeloid is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market to-day.

WHY IT SUCCEEDS
Because it's For One Thing Only and Janesville is Learning This.

Nothing can be good for anything. Doing one thing well brings success.

Doan's Kidney Pills do one thing only. They cure backache, every kidney ill.

Here is evidence to prove it. Mrs. George M. Carey of 1020 Pleasant street, Beloit, says: "I could hardly realize that the first box of Doan's Kidney Pills obtained at C. E. Emerson's drug store did me so much good. I used medicines from the doctor which helped me for a time but soon I became as bad as ever if not worse. I suffered from disordered kidneys for four years and the pain in my back was terrible. I could not sleep but at times had to sit up almost the entire night. When rising from a chair I was often compelled to place my hands on the sides of it and raise myself up to keep the strain off my back. I also suffered from the disturbing of my rest at night. After using Doan's Kidney Pills a short time these symptoms left me and since then I have felt well."

Plenty more proof like this from Janesville people. Call at the People's drug store and ask what their customers report.

LOEWENGREEN CAN'T SAY WHY HE LEAPED

But Is Sure Now That He Does Not Like River Water—Sustained Internal Injuries.

Oscar Loewengreen who did the thrilling leap from the St. Paul railroad bridge into the river at five o'clock yesterday afternoon sustained some internal injuries and was feeling somewhat the worse for his experience this morning. He was still in bed at eight o'clock and made the statement confidentially that he didn't like river water. Loewengreen confessed to remember nothing about the circumstances leading up to his jump from the bridge, though friends assert that he made the statement as late as yesterday morning that he had only a quarter in money left and he might as well throw himself in the river and end it all. The man is about forty-five years of age and married. By trade he is a tailor but he has not had employment for some time, owing, it is said, to a periodic indulgence in the cup that cheers. For a time he was driver for Kronitz Bros., meat market. Emil Meyers, a student at the Valentine School of Telegraphy, was responsible for Loewengreen's rescue. He was fishing on the bank near by when the leap was made and plunged to the man's rescue seizing him by the coat when he rose to the surface. He managed to pull Loewengreen to the bridge piling where a rope was lowered with the assistance of which the unconscious man was towed ashore. Dr. Loomis was called and worked over him a half hour before consciousness returned. Russell's ambulance removed the man to the Union house on North First street.

A LIVELY SET-TO ON FRONT STREETS

Frank Coulter Was Badly Used in an Encounter with F. W. Fruer Yesterday Afternoon.

Considerable excitement was caused at the corner of Milwaukee and Main streets at four o'clock last evening by a set-to in which F. W. Fruer and Frank Coulter were the principals. It is said that Fruer accosted Coulter, asking him to pay $12 which he claimed was owed him. Coulter's replies were not couched in the most genteel language. However that may be, Fruer led out with his right and followed with his left and a few moments later was walking towards the city hall with Officer Bencke while his alleged debtor was being helped to the office of Dr. Palmer in the Jackson block to have some ugly wounds in the face and head cared for. In court Fruer plead guilty to the charge of assault and battery and paid a fine and costs amounting to $12.60. Fruer is employed by one of the ice companies. Coulter formerly ran a meat market in Janesville.

JULY HEAVENS TO BE BEAUTIFUL

Few Facts Once Read Might Be Remembered to Advantage This Month.

Interesting astronomical data for July are furnished by the Washburn observatory. Mercury, Venus and Mars are too near the sun for favorable observation during the present month. The first two are disappearing as morning stars. Venus passes through superior conjunction on July 8th and Mercury on July 9th, so that by the close of the month both planets will begin to appear as evening stars. Jupiter and Saturn are the only conspicuous planets remaining in the sky. The former will be seen as a brilliant star ascending the eastern sky in the early morning hours, while the latter rises in the southeast and reaches the meridian far south not long after midnight.

The times of sunrise and sunset for the month are: Sunrise—July 1, at 4:22 a. m., July 11 at 4:28, July 21 at 4:37, July 31 at 4:47. Sunset occurs July 1 at 7:40 p. m., on the 11th at 7:37, on the 21st at 7:30 and on the 31st at 7:20.

The times of the moon's phases are: Last quarter, July 5, 4:54 p. m. New moon, July 12, 11:27 p. m. First quarter, July 19, 2:49 p. m. Full moon, July 27, 3:42 a. m.

The principal fixed stars visible during the month are: In the evening hours in the west; Arcturus and Spica. Near the meridian: Antares. To the east; Vega and Altair. Visitors will be received at Washburn observatory, Madison, if the night is clear on the evenings of July 6th and 20th from 7:30 to 9:30 o'clock.

WINTER STOCKS IN REQUEST

Country Merchants Are Liberal in Their Selections of Goods for the Coming Season, Woolens, Clothing and Footwear Receiving Attention.

Chicago, July 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of Chicago trade says: "Business conditions generally exhibited steadiness and were stronger in the demand throughout the leading retail lines, the buying of seasonable merchandise having reached an enlarged aggregate in both local and country dealings. Trade in the staples is now influenced by the agricultural outlook, and it is satisfactory to note that wheat harvesting proceeds favorably and that other grains are in excellent position."

"Transactions at wholesale included more liberal selections for the interior in cotton goods, woolens, clothing and footwear. Buyers have shown more confidence in placing orders, while indications pointed to increase appearing in the requirements for fall delivery. Sales of groceries and collateral lines were of fair volume, and bakers' and confectioners' supplies were in good request. Mercantile collections caused little trouble, but were more satisfactory on interior bills than locally."

Some Plants Are Closed.

"The manufacturing situation disclosed no disturbing features. Labor difficulties are undergoing adjustment and the usual mid-year inventories and repairs will occasion temporary closing down of some plants. Most branches, however, are well engaged, and the interruption of production will be slight. Consumption of structural materials and wire products remained heavy, and there is no immediate prospect of diminution of the demand. Recent orders strengthened the market for rails and pig iron, and the machinery lines, farming implements, factories and car builders have considerable work on hand. More activity was felt in lumber, while sales of building needs became stronger at good prices. New building permits and real estate sales present totals both in excess of a year ago. Much of the improvement work coming forward will involve large use of iron and other material."

Grain and Live Stock.

"Grain shipments, 2,835,763 bushels, compare with 2,385,959 bushels last week, but are 24 per cent under those a year ago. Receipts have shown some decrease, and the buying lacked improvement for export account. Compared with the closings a week ago wheat gained 14 cent a bushel, but corn and oats both declined 1 1/2 cents. Provisions were in strong demand early, but subsequent sales were narrow and values weakened, in ribs 15 cents and in pork 12 1/2 cents. Lard scored a slight gain, due mostly to short covering. "Receipts of live stock, 281,742 head, compared with 271,727 head last week and 284,938 head a year ago. No change appeared in the closing quotations for heavy hogs. Choice hogs and sheep showed scarcity, and both gained 15 cents per hundredweight. Receipts of hides were 2,580,928 pounds, against 3,115,223 pounds the previous week and 2,444,885 pounds a year ago. Shipments attained fair volume and values ruled steady. "Failures reported in Chicago district number twenty-eight, against sixteen the previous week and eighteen a year ago."

FEIGNS IGNORANCE OF GREAT FOURTH

Of July Celebration Planned for Janesville—Chief Scheibel Tells How Beloit Will Celebrate.

"See 'em boarding those cars to get down early for Beloit's great Fourth of July celebration?" said Chief of Police Scheibel, of the Line City, as he stood at the corner of Franklin and Milwaukee streets yesterday afternoon and spoke slightly of Janesville's stupendous preparations for our country's natal day. "You say you're going to have a parade and a big circus? We haven't heard anything about it down there. Janesville will be deserted next Monday. What are we going to have? Well—races and a big barbecue for two things. Forty or fifty horses are already entered for the 5:38 event. Four steers will be cooked at the fair grounds and passed out to the multitude. We have had those steers on our hands for a long time. You see two slippery fellows tried to sell them to Lex Garde for $112.50 and he was just about to pay over the money when he became suspicious and asked for references. When he went to telephone to the persons mentioned the two gentlemen ducked and haven't been seen since. No one has answered our advertisements of the stolen property, so Lex and myself are going to contribute them to the Fourth of July celebration. Well, see you Monday. It will be quite a heavy contract for the interurban to get all Janesville to Beloit if many wait until the eleventh hour. Better come Sunday."

She affirms that her husband has an income of about $3,000 a year and asks for alimony as well as the custody of the five year old daughter, Nora, and support for the same. H. L. The diamonds were in a trunk in Mrs. Furst's room. They consisted of a $1,500 brooch, rings, pins and pendants. The trunk was locked and the thief evidently had a key, as the trunk had been relocked after the jewels had been stolen.

MARRIAGE CEREMONY IN THE LION'S DEN

Everything is Now in Readiness for the Wedding Ceremony on July Fourth.

None Such Brothers' famous world-renowned shows, whose posters have graced the billboards of the Lower City for the past two weeks and whose appearance in this city on July Fourth is awaited with much anxiety, have secured a novelty in the line of thrilling adventures which everyone does not care to take many chances at, the marriage ceremony of a young couple from the town of Porter, which will be solemnized in the lion's den immediately after the grand street parade. This is the only show on the road in the world today that has ever attempted this most daring feat. The young groom was in the city yesterday and procured his marriage license, and at the request of the fair young bride the names of the contracting parties will be withheld from publication until July Fourth. During their stay in the city they will be the guests of Landlord John F. Sweeney, at the Grand Hotel, and no expense has been spared to add in any way to the comforts of this young couple, who are brave enough to face the growling lions in their cages and have the marriage ceremony performed that will unite them as husband and wife for all time. This is only one of the special features, there are numerous others. It will keep you guessing to keep track of all the features as the parade passes down Milwaukee street. Keep both eyes open and be on the lookout.
